DECLARATION ALAN A. CARRICO

• •

Case 2:19-bk-14989-WB

Movant herein, Greg Petrie, is the plaintiff in a pending civil action arising from a motor vehicle collision involving various defendants, including Scoobeez, Inc.

More specifically, Plaintiff filed his action against defendants Amazon.Com Services, Inc., Hertz, Scoobeez, Inc., and Charles Joseph Ashurst on January 10, 2020. A true copy of the summons and complaint in that action are attached hereto as Exhibit A and are incorporated by reference.

At the time the complaint was filed and served on Scoobeez it was unknown to Plaintiff that defendant Scoobeez, Inc. was already a Debtor-in-Possession of its own Chapter 11 Bankruptcy proceeding in the Central District of California, Case number 2:19-bk-14989-WB filed on April 30, 2019. Plaintiff served Scoobeez, Inc. with the summons and complaint in this action on January 21, 2020. Defendant Scoobeez, Inc. failed to file a responsive pleading and as such, Plaintiff obtained an entry of default against Scoobeez, Inc. on May 26, 2020. Again, Plaintiff was not aware of Scoobeez' pending bankruptcy proceeding during this time frame.

Whereas defendant Scoobeez, Inc. Chapter 11 proceeding was still in effect at these relevant times, yet unknown to Plaintiff, the entry of default against Scoobeez, Inc. was legally a void act since the Automatic Stay provided under the Bankruptcy Code prevented any entry of default against Scoobeez, Inc. as a matter of law. Plaintiff and counsel for Scoobeez in the state court action have agreed to set aside the default to allow Scoobeez to answer the complaint, but the Judge assigned to the state court action requested that we present that court with written confirmation that the automatic stay in favor of Scoobeez was no longer in affect. As such, I am proceeding with this motion for relief from stay in order have the default of Scoobeez set aside in order to allow Scoobeez to answer/appear in the state court action.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed April 6, 2021, at Glendora, Ca.

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

To Plaintiffe and Others Filing First Papers. If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1. check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best Indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filled only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2,30 and 3,220 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties in Rule 3,740 Collections Cases. A "collections case" under rule 3,740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3.740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties in Complex Cases. In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3.400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex.
